The screenshot shows a chat window with a title bar that says "New consultation group". The chat history shows a user asking for a list of documents to take to a branch. The assistant responds with a list of three items: "1. Income tax returns of proprietor for last 3 years", "2. Company Agreement", and "3. Pan card". The user's next input is "User enters free text".

The screenshot displays the Microsoft Bot Framework Designer interface. On the left, the 'Conversation steps' pane shows a flow starting with 'What is your's company type?'. This leads to a decision node with two options: 'Proprietorship' and 'Partnership'. The 'Partnership' path leads to a text action: 'Please take the following documents and approach the closest branch:
 1. Income tax returns of...'. Below this, there is a 'Go to action: End' button. A dialog box titled 'Go to another action' is open, showing the current action 'Go to' and the next action 'End'. The dialog also has a checkbox for 'End this action after the other action is completed' and 'Cancel' and 'Apply' buttons. The main canvas shows the flow starting with 'What is your's company type?' and leading to the 'Partnership' branch.
